

What a way to drop a bombshell baby
Guess you really didn't think I'd found out
Hear the silence crying
In the room on the side with the lights out
Know what you're feeling, oh-oh
Know what you're feeling, oh-oh

Fuckin' with my heart and head
I'm fallin' out of love again
Rollin' up my blunt in bed
Fallin' out of love again

'Cause I don't know 'bout you, 'bout you
'Bout you, you-you-you-you-you
There's something in his eyes
He's keeping secrets
I don't know 'bout you, bout you
'Bout you, you-you-you-you-you
There's something in his eyes
He's keeping secrets

I'ma have to take a mugshot, baby
What you're doin' to me is criminal, out here
On my knees, I'm prayin'
In the room on the floor with the lights out
Clothin' the kitchen door
I'ma light it and leave it for you

Fuckin' with my heart and head
I'm fallin' out of love again
Rollin' up my blunt in bed
I'm fallin' out of love again

'Cause I don't know 'bout you, 'bout you
'Bout you, you-you-you-you-you
There's something in his eyes
He's keeping secrets
I don't know 'bout you, bout you
'Bout you, you-you-you-you-you
There's something in his eyes
He's keeping secrets
I don't know 'bout you, 'bout you
'Bout you, you-you-you-you-you
There's something in his eyes
He's keeping secrets
I don't know 'bout you
'Bout you, you-you-you-you-you
There's something in his eyes
