

Dangerous

Aaron Taos

I don't think I'm selfish at all
I'm sorry that I know what I want
You say I'm gonna die alone
I rather that than live like a clone

I'd be lying if I said I'm complete
But I'm better off when I'm light on my feet
I wanna give my love all to you
But instead I went and fucked someone new

Thing's may not seem like they should be
I'm not who you thought I would be...
Could be dangerous

I don't think you see what I see
In need of love and you're lookin' at me
I gave my heart, locked the door and the key
Buts it's just not enough for your needs

Your emotions weighing hard on my chest
And I get mad soon as you get upset
I know it's fucked up but what can we do?
You cry about it then you fuck someone new

Thing's may not seem like they should be
I'm not who you thought I would be...
Could be dangerous
