

(Love like indigo, the deepest that I go)

Butterflies got me feelin' weak in the knees
No but I'm not that surprised you got me hooked with no key
Call me crazy, but I know you from another life
I know it's so typical to run and hide

Ya, like a fly on the ceiling
Blink twice cuz I'm high off the feeling
Been waiting for an oolong time
My sweet tea caramel pie

The more I think about it
Can't get my head around it

Ooowaa!
Love like indigo, the deepest that I go
Ooowaa!
My sweet cinnamon roll, sticking to my soul

(Never letting go...)

If I told you once, I told you twice I want you
Back to back with snacks in California
If I could paint, I'd paint picture for you
No Picasso, my loves colossal
Way, way, way, too deep
Wait, wait wait for me
No lock, sing off key
Back in room in the karaoke bar
You're such a star
I'll air guitar
You just keep on singing baby
Sing it baby!

Ooowaa!
Love like indigo, the deepest that I go
Ooowaa!
My sweet cinnamon roll, sticking to my soul

(Never letting go...)
