

Simple & Sober

Aaron Taos

Ooooh, ooooh

You want him simple and sober
And I want him red in the eyes
You want him skipping through clovers, ooooh
And I want him getting me high
Oh well, I know, you could break him and just take him away
But just listen hear me out, 'cause I'm 'bout to go over the edge
He's my friend, he's my means to an end
He's all I got, please don't take him today

Just bring him back, I love you all the time
Just bring him back, 'cause you're my brother, ain't that right?
Just bring him back, and she's got you wrapped so tight
Just bring him back, my last offer is "bring him tonight"

And oh, I need ya, oh, I need ya
So quit fucking around
And just give it to me
I didn't mean it, oh, I didn't mean it
I'm not feeling like myself
And lately I just can't help acting like a fool when you're around
A diamond ain't worth nothing when it's still beneath the ground
So I'm sorry
It'll haunt me

Just bring him back, I love you all the time
Just bring him back, 'cause you're my brother, ain't that right?
Just bring him back, and she's got you wrapped so tight
Just bring him back, my last offer is "bring him tonight"

Just bring him back, oh yea-yea-yeah
Just bring him back
Ooooh, ooooh
