

Stoopid

Aaron Taos

Baby girl, you stay on my mind
And it's so confusing, think I'm gonna lose it
How the hell you've been there all this time?
Feeling so stupid

We don't even talk, you're back at New York
And I'm out in L.A. now, I know it's my fault
Nothing left to say now, we're done, said enough
Go our separate ways now, baby, it's all love

But if the loving still hurts, then maybe loving do work
Maybe it's hate or it's pain or addiction
Either way, it's the same, 'cause when it starts to get late
You're the one thing that I start missing

Baby girl, you stay on my mind
And it's so confusing, think I'm gonna lose it
How the hell you've been there all this time?
Shit, it's been two years, feeling so stupid

Just when it ends, you're right there again
The memory stays so fluid
Baby girl, you stay on my mind
Feeling so stupid (stupid, stupid)

But you're my baby (baby)
All these other women and you're still my favorite (yes)
Crying on the daily
Never sang your name before, but I miss you, Katie

And it's insane that you're still on my brain
After three years dodging commitment
Babe, I know I was wrong, and I know you moved on
But it's so damn hard to admit it

Baby girl, you stay on my mind
And it's so confusing, think I'm gonna lose it
How the hell you've been there all this time?
Shit, it's been two years, feeling so stupid

Just when it ends, you're right there again
The memory stays so fluid
Baby girl, you stay on my mind
Feeling so stupid, feeling so stupid
Feeling so stupid

Stupid's a thing I ain't felt before
I get a hard and it should be yours (yeah)
I want you back here more and more (I want you)
I'll wash the dishes, I'll do the chores
I'm pretty good at fuckin' up, convinced myself that it was enough
Right about now, wish it wasn't us
Pizza Chardon, know you loved the crust whenever we ordered a pizza
Good morning, I need you to call me when you see this text
When you're screaming out so many reasons that you should ignore this
But all of them are enough to keep me bleedin'

Baby girl, you stay on my mind
And it's so confusing, think I'm gonna lose it
How the hell you've been there all this time?
Shit, it's been two years, feeling so stupid

And just when it ends, you're right there again
The memory stays so fluid
Baby girl, you stay on my mind
Feeling so stupid, feeling so stupid (stupid, stupid)
Feeling so stupid (stupid, stupid, stupid)
Feeling so stupid (stupid, stupid, stupid)
Feeling so stupid (stupid, stupid, stupid)
Feeling so stupid
