

Heartstrings

Aaron Watson

She knows I'm always on the fly
Always kisses me goodbye
With godspeed and angel wings
And when I chase that falling star
I trip and fall too far
She picks me up by my heartstrings

Oh, she's got those strings around my heart, ah
Oh, she's got those strings around my heart
Oh, she has my heartstrings

I'm a trailblazer, stargazer
A rainbow rambler born to roam
But she's like no one I've ever known
She reels me in and gently brings me back home

Oh, she's got those strings around my heart, ah
Oh, she's got those strings around my heart
Oh, she has my heartstrings

If she ever cut me loose
Came unraveled or untied
I know it would break my heart
If she broke that velvet line
Full of never ending grace
Tangles me in love and lace
Oh, she has my heartstrings

When she loves, when she laughs
When she cries, oh, she has my heartstrings
When she whispers my name and she sighs, ah

Oh, she's got those strings around my heart, ah
Oh, she's got those strings around my heart
Oh, she has my heartstrings