

Art of Seduction

Ab-Soul

Uh

She say she ain't a gold digger, but she like nice things
Money over bitches is the song I sing
But when I'm done recordin' and the cameras off
I'll probably blow a whole bag on the baddest broad
I know the difference 'tween a square and a ho
Even the ones caught in the middle
Sometime, the blade look like backstage of the show
It's complex, but it could all be so simple
And I ain't sayin' I'm a Don Juan or somethin'
I'm the farthest from it, but I'm familiar with the art of seduction
I read the Iceberg Chronicles and I promise you
I don't wear my hair like Goldie for nothin'
The trick is to know is if you trickin' or treatin', though
Do she want you for you or what you could do?
Will the honey stay when the money goes?
I don't know, ask Winnie the Pooh, yo

She only love me when I don't say no
She only love me when I don't say no
She only love me when I don't say no
She only love me when I don't say no
I won't say it
You've been waitin' all day
Now that you got me, what you gon' do with it?
What you gon' do with it?

Herbie, the love bug, is you ridin' or what, love?
The wine is old, the night is young
Your face is beat, your braids are fresh
Didn't have time to wax, but you shaved your best
You thick as thieves, you done stole my heart
Gettin' me hard, I don't care what your intentions are
She say I got a beautiful dick
I make her uterus do unusual shit, yeah
I knew it wasn't a lie
'Cause, for a second, I thought I was on a waterslide
Felt a twitch in her thigh, that look in her eye
You know you ain't doin' your job if she don't say, "Oh, my God"
She fucked some niggas I know
I fucked some bitches she know
But we gon' keep it on the d-low, as far as we know
I pray there ain't a zenith to how far we grow
Just keepin' it a C-note, I hope she don't

Only love me when I don't say no
She only love me when I don't say no
She only love me when I don't say no
She only love me when I don't say no
I won't say it
You've been waitin' all day
Now that you got me, what you gon' do with it?
What you gon' do with it?

Since you got time, don't waste it
Nah, don't waste it

I really love your patience
You've been waitin' all day
You should come get your reward, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh

Yeah, you've been waitin' all day
You should come get your reward, oh (Herbert)
Don't pour no more of that DeLeon
Because your ass gon' wanna have sex
And it's gon' take, like, two hours
And I gotta get up and go to work in the morning
And I do not have time for all of that
