

Disturbing Remedies For A Desperate Disease

Abacinate

Had some ideas lately.
I call them inspiration.
Will not be dictated.
By small minds and large wallets.
Everyone around me dropping like flies.
How will this project ever end?
No more incompetence.
Soon enough everyone will die.
It started out as an accident.
Could not resist the fresh body parts.

Such perfect props.
They look so real.
Your hands are bleeding.
I really like the way that sounds.
To win over the audience.
Things need to be done.
One body is not enough.
I must continue killing.
I'm relatively now at this.

What if they don't buy the suicide?
Something brought us together.
Scream as loud as you want.
Sign the dotted line, She'll be lucky.
If she makes it out alive.
Beyond the flesh
Obsession for my work.
Perfect smash cut.
I won't ever get caught.

Had some ideas lately.
I call them inspiration.
Will not be dictated.
There will be no more incompetence.
