Fluorescein

Abandoned Pools

Wipe away the summer air You don't wanna see That's you in that Photograph from 1973 And you don't even know me

God only Knows I wanna be
The other side of misery
Gimme a plate of Fluorescein
I'm gonna paint an ugly scene
All of the things I wanna say
Can't get a word out anyway
Falling away after today
Nothing to lose so come what may

Don't wake me

You got away from me somehow And all we tried to be Everything is different now The mind's eye fails to see

Inside, I rise above this shallow world
Inside, I rise above this sorrow

And all we know is TV
