

Septentrion

Abbath

Borne on storm, thrashed cobalt gray
Skade's tongue sears our way
Burning path through boiling cloud
To burst from melt of molten shroud
Arctic Thule whips scalp from skull

Septentrion

Beneath us merciless ocean heaves
Waves claw the scales of raiders' beast
Serpent wings thrust us high
Above the surge that rips the sky
Like plough 'cross charnel field
The firmament shall yield

Septentrion

Septentrion

Septentrion's northern swarm rides the swell
Wolf pack storm our shores, blizzard raised from hell
Seven plagues sever necks
Seven gates to sunken wrecks
Sevenfold, demon realm
Southward bound to overwhelm
