

The One

Abbey Cone

Baby

Don't take this wrong, but loving you's the worst
'Cause I'm so goddamn happy that it hurts, mm
I wish I could calm down
I know I should, but we feel so good, I'm scared
Get to thinkin' 'bout forever without you there
And I swear

If you ain't the one, then I'm done, yeah
I'm talkin' maybe die alone
The one that I remember bein' young with when I'm old
Even if you ain't the one, yeah, you'll still be the one
That made me, that changed me
You're the only truth I ever felt
And I know that, even if I marry someone else
Baby, if you ain't the one, yeah, you'll still be the one

That I'll think of

If our dream comes true and I make it to Japan
It won't mean nothin' if it ain't your hand in my hand

If you ain't the one, then I'm done, yeah
I'm talkin' maybe die alone
The one that I remember bein' young with when I'm old
Even if you ain't the one, yeah, you'll still be the one
That made me, that changed me
You're the only truth I ever felt
And I know that, even if I marry someone else
Baby, if you ain't the one, yeah, you'll still be the one

Life lasts so long and most love, it don't last
I could never forget you laughin' like that
It would haunt me forever

If you ain't the one, then I'm done, yeah
I'm talkin' maybe die alone
The one that I remember bein' young with when I'm old
Even if you ain't the one, yeah, you'll still be the one
That made me, that changed me
You're the only truth I ever felt
And I know that, even if I marry someone else
Baby, if you ain't the one, yeah, you'll still be the one

Still be the one

Yeah, you'll still be the one
Mm-mm
