

Broken

Abbey Glover

Tell me what do you want this time?
What do you want from me?
'Cause I've got nothing to give
After giving you all of me

Tell me are you happy now?
Did it all plan out
Exactly how you wanted it
Exactly how you wanted it to

My heart may be broken
But at least I've got one
And I'd rather have a broken heart
Than none
Tell me are you just jealous
That I can love?
When you've always been incapable
Incapable of loving someone

Do you know how long it takes to mend a heart?
Let someone in?
Let them break down all of the walls
That I've built around myself again

My heart may be broken
But at least I've got one
And I'd rather have a broken heart
Than none
Tell me are you just jealous
That I can love?
When you've always been incapable
Incapable of loving someone

Why'd you have to hurt me
Was I deserving
Did I do something wrong
Or is something the matter with me?
Why'd you have to hurt me
Was I deserving
Did I do something wrong
Or is something the matter with me?

My heart may be broken
But at least I've got one
And I'd rather have a broken heart
Than none
Tell me are you just jealous
That I can love?
When you've always been incapable
Incapable of loving someone
