

Come Back

Abbey Glover

Eyes glowing in the party fairy lights
Caught yours and you caught mine
Was the most wonderful night of my life
And the only thing going faster than my heart
Was time
Went back to yours
Stayed the night
Fell asleep in your arms
You feel like home
You feel right

And as the shatters of our hearts
Fell and hit the floor
You crouched down to pick up mine
And I picked up yours, yours, yours, yours
And I took a piece of your heart that night
And I put it in my pocket
So that even now we're apart
I'll have you with my 'til I'm old
Like you promised
'Til I'm old like you promised
And I miss you, baby
I said I miss you, baby, all the time

Weeks turned to months
And months turned to years
New experiences turned to routine
And laughter turned to tears
A love too strong for both hearts to take
A love that will end with not just one
But two hearts to break

And as the shatters of our hearts
Fell and hit the floor
You crouched down to pick up mine
And I picked up yours, yours, yours, yours
And I took a piece of your heart that night
And I put it in my pocket
So that even now we're apart
I'll have you with my 'til I'm old
Like you promised
'Til I'm old like you promised
And I miss you, baby
I said I miss you, baby, all the time

Oh, behead me now, behead me now
'Cause you're stuck in my brain
And it's the only way that I'll get you out
Behead me now, behead me now
'Cause you're stuck in my brain
And it's the only way that I'll get you out, out, out

And as the shatters of our hearts
Fell and hit the floor
You crouched down to pick up mine
And I picked up yours, yours, yours, yours
And I took a piece of your heart that night

And I put it in my pocket
So that even now we're apart
I'll have you with my 'til I'm old
Like you promised
'Til I'm old like you promised
And I miss you, baby
I said I miss you, baby, all the time
