ABC

All summer long at rain, we kiss in the downpour
You look so beautiful, your dress floats to the floor
We took a drive on down to the ocean, we walked along alone by the shore

Still couldn't get that umbrella open, I knew right then, why life is full

Once we had gold, once we had love (Once in our hearts we knew)
Destinies change, yes they do (Love was never enough for you)
But tell me when you lie in your bed at night
I'm asking you one last time, did things turn out right?
Caroline...

Do we wind up chasing all our illusions
Or do we live the life, the life that we choose
If there's someone up there giving directions
Do we always have to win, before we lose?

Once we had gold, once we had love (Once in our hearts we knew)
Destinies change, yes they do (Love was never enough for you)
But tell me when you lie in your bed at night
I'm asking you one last time, did things turn out right?
Caroline...

But tell me when you lie in your bed at night
I'm asking you one last time

But tell me when you lie in your bed at night
I'm asking you one last time (one last time), did things turn out right?
