I had dreams and crazy schemes
Never felt this way before
I had days when I god raged
Never felt like this before
Endless nights that end in flights
Now I feel love

Never. Never. Never more than now Never. Never. Never more than now Never more than now

Paralysed by vicious lies
Never felt this way before
Seen hope die and grown men cry
Never felt like this before
Shed lonely tears and heartfelt fears
Now I feel love

Never. Never. Never more than now Never. Never. Never more than now

A thing of beauty Lasts forever Stretches through all time Every endeavour

No matter how hard They might try To build you up And to bleed you dry

Never lose love. Never Never lose love. Never Ever, ever, ever

Never. Never. Never more than now Never. Never. Never more than now
