

Ten Below Zero

ABC

Since the day you set me free
Your ghost still hauntin' me
I can't escape you
I swear you're always there
Was it the cocktail in your kiss
Your pretty little tyrannies
The sound of your laughter
The fragrance in your hair

Temperature's rising
It's hotter than June
It's not surprising
There's snowflakes
In my room
It's summer outside
Yet we're poles apart
It's ten below zero
(Ten below zero)
(Ten below zero)
Here in my heart

I guess I'll always feel the same
Still burnin' an eternal flame
Till Hell freezes over
And the ice melts in my veins

Temperature's rising
It's hotter than June
It's not surprising
There's snowflakes
In my room
It's summer outside
Yet we're poles apart
It's ten below zero
(Ten below zero)
(Ten below zero)
Here in my heart

Time was suspended
The moment was frozen
Two hearts surrendered
But someone had chosen
To come, to come
Am I a fool to reminisce
In sonnets and soliloquies
When all I've got's
Forget-me-nots
And everlasting memories

Temperature's rising
It's hotter than June
It's not surprising
There's snowflakes
In my room
It's summer outside
Yet we're poles apart
It's ten below zero

Here in my heart
