

Evil Genius

Abe Parker

That girl's an evil genius
She knows that she is my only weakness
Evil genius
If running off
With all of my life is the masterplan
That girl's an evil genius
Evil genius

I'm under that spell
Drowning in her wishing well
Loading up the get away car
Making off with my heart
Like it wasn't that hard to do and
Ain't no breaking this fall
She's got me under mind control
All she had to say is I do
Now I'm stealing that moon
Breaking every rule I know

Either she's an angel in disguise
Or

That girl's an evil genius
She knows that she is my only weakness
Evil genius
If running off
With all of my life is the masterplan
That girl's an evil genius
Evil genius

She gets away with murder
And brings me back to life
Take me to the secret liar
Drawing out hearts in the mushroom clouds
She and I
Ride or die, Bonnie and Clyde
Kissing goodbye to the bright side
Of the moon
Ya, and I know, I know, I know
I could never let her go

That girl's an evil genius
She knows that she is my only weakness
Evil genius
If running off
With all of my life is the masterplan
That girl's an evil genius
Evil genius

Evil genius
Evil genius
Evil genius
Evil genius

That girl's an evil genius
She knows that she is my only weakness
Evil genius

If running off
With all of my life is the masterplan
Evil genius
