Until Now

Abe Parker

One, two-

Can I take you on a wild adventure?
All my life, I've never been sure
Until now, until now
Now
Now

Picture frames hung on your mom's stairway
I wish I knew you back in elementary
Would you have known on the school bus ride home?
I was always yours and we were meant to be

Oh-oh, oh-ooh, I know we're practically still strangers
So, tell me why it feels like eternity

Can I take you on a wild adventure?
All my life, I've never been sure
Until now, until now
Now
Now

The window pane gets all this condensation
And I see the messages you wrote last week
And I can't get myself over you walking in a room
And I still pause the conversations when you leave

Hm-mm, hm-mm, all my life was just a prequel
Leading up to the moment you looked at me

Can I take you on a wild adventure?
All my life, I've never been sure
Until now, until now
Now
Now

I think I'm finally ready now (Now)
Do you feel the same way now? (Now)
Never been so sure 'til now (Now)
All I want is you right now (Now)
