Abhi the Nomad

Shout out to G-Ma
Restin' in peace to the greatest of grandads
Modest demeanor
Slipped in the bath and he left with a snapback
A minute for all of the loss
We living but nothing is free
You could take it from me
My cousin ain't eating I'm lucky to breathe
That is some deep shit
Listen and listen again for a week shit
This is for people
This is for people that want that "this what I need" shit
My mama said don't take living for granted son
I see the devil in all of us
I see the devil in all of us

SSA
You could save your soul too
Let's escape
Segregate
Build a house up on a hill to heaven's gate
Life gave me lemon trees
I can make that lemonade
1.99 for that sweet sour serenade

My life's alright I don't need no more lemonade
I need professional help and a cheap escape
Xanzillas alleviate
I make the effort look like I don't care like Kawhi Leonard's braids
My whole team is great
That's not what's up for debating now
I'm Chris rock in 1997 I'm champagnin now
Tell the pilot I'm not off vacation turn the plane around
Ocho, cinco play them out
Child please
I've got lawyer fees how I raised the bar
Muscle beach on deca durabolin how I raised the bar
So unfair
Even good guys have their villain moments so I played the part
Lion king I hated scar now check me
I'm the king now
