

Afterparty

Abigail Barlow

I never partied in high school
So excuse me for not knowing my limits
But you're hot and I like you
So meet me in the bathroom in five minutes

Know you love to talk, but I ain't listening
Take a shot and I pretend to give a shit
And it'll burn, going down, down, down, but

Do you wanna come to the after party with me?
Said do you wanna come put your body on me pretty pretty please?
What you're drinking 'cause I'm buying if you promise to be quiet, baby
'Cause I'm dying to please you
Do you wanna come to the

Do you wanna come to the afterparty?
Afterparty, afterparty
Do you wanna come put your body on me?
Pretty, pretty please (afterparty)

I'm a little bit psycho
Never been too good at making decisions
But you're hot and I like you
Even look good during my double vision

Know you're kinda dumb but I don't give a shit
Have another, baby, we ain't finished yet
And it'll burn, going down, down, down, but

It's okay, don't be intimidated
Don't worry your pretty little brain
It's okay, it ain't complicated
I'm a good girl, promise to behave
Whatever you need, I'll make it so
Whatever makes you feel more comfortable
Let me know if you down, down, down
Down, down, down

Do you wanna come to the afterparty?
Afterparty, afterparty
Do you wanna come put your body on me?
Pretty, pretty please (afterparty)
You're the only one invited and I promise that you'll like it, so
Do you wanna come to the afterparty?
With me

Final call, it's so late
Follow me back to my place
You're so tall, it's so great
I don't even know your name
Final call, it's so late
Follow me back to my place
You're so tall, it's so great
Next to you, I feel so safe
Do you wanna come to the afterparty?

Do you wanna come to the afterparty?

Afterparty, afterparty
Do you wanna come put your body on me?
Pretty, pretty please (afterparty)
You're the only one invited and I promise that you'll like it, so
Do you wanna come to the afterparty?
With me

Final call, it's so late
Afterparty, afterparty
You're so tall, it's so great
I don't even know your name
Final call, it's so late
Afterparty, afterparty
You're so tall, it's so great
Next to you, I feel so safe
Do you wanna come to the afterparty?
