

Cancelled

Abigail Barlow

You mus be feeling special
Playing a hero on TV
I bet you're so proud
You must deserve a medal
All of those zeros in the green
You revel in it, oh

Sorry, your highness
But I won't stay quiet anymore, I'm not surprised
Think you're as big as Goliath
A giant, the finest, but I see Midas

You're so successful, hope you get canceled
I hope all the bones in your closet get exposed if I'm honest, boy
Karma's gonna get ya, just you wait
It'll be on the front page, can't wait for that day

Can't wait for that day

I bet your mama's crying
Seeing your face up on the screen
I bet you're so high, must be exciting
Living like a king, mmh
The mighty, how they fall

Think you're as big as Goliath
A giant, the finest, but I see Midas

You're so successful, hope you get canceled
I hope all the bones in your closet get exposed if I'm honest, boy
Karma's gonna get ya, just you wait

Can't wait for that day

I heard my name's in your mouth
While you were up in the clouds
Think it's time to come back down
I heard your touch turns to gold
What a hell of a hoax
Think it's time you turned to stone

You're so successful, hope you get canceled
I hope all the bones in your closet get exposed if I'm honest, boy
Karma's gonna get ya, just you wait

Can't wait for that day
Can't wait for that day
