

Double Vision

Abigail Barlow

Convincing me to have a drink
I shouldn't have done it
I'm listening to the glasses clink
And now we've begun it, oh oh

Oh, I watch your body multiply
No, I want your body close to mine

I'm riding the bubbles
Now I'm in trouble
Gotta keep you at a distance
When I'm seeing double vision
I barely handle one of you
Don't know what I would do with two
I make bad decisions
When I'm seeing, seeing, seeing

Convincing me to stay past three
I shouldn't have done it
I'm listening to you turn the key
And now we've begun it, oh oh

Oh, control is fading black and white, oh
Oh, console this breaking heart tonight, oh

I'm riding the bubbles
And now I'm in trouble
Gotta keep you at a distance
When I'm seeing double vision
I barely handle one of you
Don't know what I would do with two
I make bad decisions
When I'm seeing, seeing, seeing

Oh, control is fading black and white (vision)
Oh, console this broken heart tonight, ooh (vision)

I'm riding the bubbles
And now I'm in trouble
Gotta keep you at a distance
When I'm seeing double vision
I barely handle one of you
Don't know what I would do with to
I make bad decisions
When I'm seeing, seeing, seeing

Convincing me to have a drink
I shouldn't have done it
