Future Ex

Abigail Barlow

If you break my heart, whatever
If it falls apart, it's okay, feels good when I put it together
It's really no problem, 'cause I like hitting rock bottom, uh
When I float to the surface, know you didn't deserve this

When I just focus, focus on me
You just become a memory
Haven't cried over you since last week
Honestly

I hope I meet another future ex
I hope I love him but he always loves me less
Hope it's our anniversary and he forgets
I'll raise a glass to stupid men
Thank you future ex
Thank you future ex
Baddest bitch you ever met
Thank you future ex
Baddest bitch you ever met
Thank you future ex

You mess me up, it don't matter
I'll just get back up, I'm enough, I'm not waiting on forever after It's really no issue, I'm done wasting tissues, uh
You were never worth my tears, tears

When I just focus, focus on me
You just become a memory
No more nightmares, only sweet dreams
Honestly

I hope I meet another future ex
I hope I love him but he always loves me less
Hope it's our anniversary and he forgets
I'll raise a glass to stupid men
Thank you future ex
Thank you future ex
Baddest bitch you ever met
Thank you future ex
Baddest bitch you ever met
Thank you future ex
Bitch you met

Finally fit into the stress
Thanking God for stupid men
Baddest bitch you ever met
Finally fit into the stress
Thanking God for stupid men
Can't wait to meet my future ex

I hope I meet another future ex
I hope I love him but he always loves me less
Hope it's our anniversary and he forgets
I'll raise a glass to stupid men
Thank you future ex
