

Rock Bottom

Abigail Barlow

Everyone thinks
I'm down below the Marianas
Everyone drinks
Down with the queen
Who just can't be honest

They watch as I sink
But the truth is the pressure is just what I needed
And I'm doing better than ever if you can believe it

Guess I'm a
Villain
I guess it's up to me to play the Heroine
I was meant to be

Cuz it's not that deep
I'm the one who taught me how to
Breathe
Underwater no one hears me
Sing
Telling the story just how I wanna (wanna)
Cuz I got a tale to tell at rock bottom

Everyone says
I'm down where light won't touch the darkness
Everyone bets
I sold my soul for a bag now I'm heartless
No oxygen
And down with the ship of forgettable artists
In waters uncharted

Cuz it's not that deep
I'm the one who taught me how to
Breathe
Underwater no one hears me
Sing
Telling the story just how I wanna (wanna)
Cuz I got a tale to tell at rock bottom

When I resurface
Inherit the earth and the ocean
I'll come out better than ever I know it

When I resurface
Inherit the earth and the ocean
They're gonna welcome me home
With arms wide open

Arms wide open!

Cuz it's not that deep
Only 37,000 feet
Underwater no one hears me
Sing
