

Black Waves

Abigail Williams

Cast to the sea
Sunken dreams and distant songs
Far beyond the fog

Illuminate the way
Through skies of black and lakes of red
Deeper along her veins

Bury the blade
Whispering stillness
Through the black waves

The truth is uglier than the lie
And the lies won't give what truth takes away

Twisting through the soil
Below the starlight
Until the dawn
Possession of the flesh

Waking from a dream half empty
Hell dosed desperate and deranged

Illuminate the way
Through skies of black and lakes of red
Deeper along her veins

Bury the blade
Whispering stillness
Through the black waves

I am the bastard to deny you of your prayers

Black waves
I face my failures
Emptiness eternal
