

Die Before the Rise

Abigail

They are alone in the dark
They can't see,
Between the life and death

But now the waiting is gone
And soon the answer will come
Why they die before the rise
And the question draws in the being self
Hope is aimlessly,
The morning light will not be seen

Die before the rise...

Infinity of night
Suffering,
Community of faith