Abigail

I will stay a long time
With eyes staring down there
My hands hold my head
And tears are flowing

Oh, you cry for me cause Gods
Gods are sending me to die
Where the sky reflects the Hell

In the land of tears,
There's a lot of our grieves
In the land of tears,
There's a place where the hope lives

I will stay a long time
With eyes staring up there
My thoughts run to you
My only one...

Your Christ is calling you
My Christ calls me
Don't pray for me
We're not the same
