

All Hail Darkness And Evil

Abigor

Lucifer, enlighten not this world's not worth to shed your image on but blind them all (who are) gazing into your light tarnish the servants and seekers alike neither Eden nor Inferno is their house extinguish your flame they're all unworthy of bring forth the night, spit poison, spread blight kill friend and foe, disbeliever, proselyte

eternally trapped in the purgatory aether damned to rot between heaven and hell all hail damnation and terror ungranted redemption, cursed by the serpent's spell cast out, entrance forbidden the moonchild is strangled, a new cycle yields nothing but suffering while gallows dance on the endless cemetery fields
