

Extermination Angel

Abigor

"and the devil made man or was it the other god? who is responsible for the insanity man, devil, god?"

for the filth that stained all holy for the dirt which covered His face with crust all the feces, grime and muddy waters first purge then pervert, abuse with lust like a flash from above or below you came to rape the most innocent of all COME DEVOUR US

for the stench which ignites our hearts with disgust, hate and raging rancour slimy breed of hollow creed DEVOUR US

clean the aether from the stinking saintly let us smell whiffs of sacred blight skin them slowly, scorch their flesh sweet innocence consumed with cruelest spite

for all deeds and all yet undone
for the past and what's still to come

the grave crowns life while the cradle damns few are worthy, fewer blessed take possession, claim their souls appear, send madness - cull, send pest

WRATHFUL ANGEL OF INSANITY AND PAIN

cut as much wood as you can try to build your ark yet in every gap between the planks the ancient plagues already lurk worm-ridden, sick, full of flies no nucleus, no DNA is unsoiled or clean scars, fester, suffering avouch existence so canonise the hangman who preaches with merciful blade gibbet the vexing creatures who befoul their own elysian nest hallow the sadist, hail the executioner
