

TV is on, and I'm talking on the phone.
PC left on too, all at the same time.
No space on the floor, I could open a store.
It's almost 4, questions on my mind.

If I lose 'em all, what would happen to me?
Ain't no sleepless night, ain't goin' to kill me.
If I lose 'em all, what would happen to me?
What's the big deal? I am all I need.

Tigers following me, spiders watching me
As if they're my friends, waiting for me to sleep
Words they throw at me, are binging me down
But I'm reaching out toward a higher ground

If I lose 'em all, what would happen to me?
Ain't no sleepless night, ain't goin' to kill me.
If I lose 'em all, what would happen to me?
What's the big deal? I am all I need.

Just throw them away,
Take all away
Too heavy if you want to win the game
Get out of my way,
Take it if you want! (Bring it on!!)

Just throw them away,
Take all away
They got a better place to go to anyway
Get out of my way,
Take it if you want!

Just throw them away,
Take all away
Too heavy if you want to win the game
Get out of my way,
Take it if you want! (That's Fre@k SHoW!!)
