

Her Cold Embrace

Ablaze My Sorrow

A hidden hall, in permanent bitter winter
A seemingly forlorn place, under a waning moon
Dark and ominous, a hopeless realm for the lost and damned
A punishment, a barren relentless afterlife

Cowards, thieves and murderers - come lay with me, feel my touch
Backstabbers, liars, scum of the earth - I'll reap your filthy worthless souls
Helheim in Nifelheim - you'll freeze in death in eternity
A last caress, the kiss of death - come feel my cold everlasting embrace

There's no compassion in this void
There is no grandeur, only bleakness and emptiness
To die eternally in cold and dark hopelessness
Swept away on an icy gale from her last kiss

My ice-cold lips, placed on yours
You'll die, sweet
Come feel the ecstasy
Creep down your spine

Ice-cold fingers, creeping down my spine
Cold lips sucking the marrow out of my bones
A perpetual night, a grim and frostbitten world
To court death, to die in empty ecstasy

Cowards, thieves and murderers - come lay with me, feel my touch
Backstabbers, liars, scum of the earth - I'll reap your filthy worthless souls
Helheim in Nifelheim - you'll freeze in death in eternity
A last caress, the kiss of death - come feel my cold everlasting embrace

Feel my ice-cold fingers creep down your spine
You'll die in my ecstasy
My everlasting cold embrace
