A hidden hall, in permanent bitter winter A seemingly forlorn place, under a waning moon Dark and ominous, a hopeless realm for the lost and damned A punishment, a barren relentless afterlife

Cowards, thieves and murderers - come lay with me, feel my touc $\ensuremath{\mathsf{h}}$

Backstabbers, liars, scum of the earth - I'll reap your filthy worthless souls

Helheim in Nifelheim - you'll freeze in death in eternity A last caress, the kiss of death - come feel my cold everlastin g embrace

There's no compassion in this void
There is no grandeur, only bleakness and emptiness
To die eternally in cold and dark hopelessness
Swept away on an icy gale from her last kiss

My ice-cold lips, placed on yours You'll die, sweet Come feel the ecstasy Creep down your spine

Ice-cold fingers, creeping down my spine
Cold lips sucking the marrow out of my bones
A perpetual night, a grim and frostbitten world
To court death, to die in empty ecstasy

Cowards, thieves and murderers - come lay with me, feel my touc ${\bf h}$

Backstabbers, liars, scum of the earth - I'll reap your filthy worthless souls

Helheim in Nifelheim - you'll freeze in death in eternity A last caress, the kiss of death - come feel my cold everlastin g embrace

Feel my ice-cold fingers creep down your spine You'll die in my ecstasy My everlasting cold embrace
