

One Last Sting

Ablaze My Sorrow

Stung by your passionate darkness, ferocious in its form.
Embraced by your chaotic freedom, its beautiful perfection.

Essence of pure despair running through my veins.
Yet I love every second, every minute, every hour.
Your chemical relief eradicates my pain.
I loose myself in you, forever devoured.

Staring into the endless black - Not a single sound can be heard.

Tearing life into pieces spreading in the wind.
I've accepted what tomorrow brings.
I've got no hope left, can't let this go on.
A final date with the needle...one last sting.

As the cold wind caresses my skin - Nothing but emptiness remains.

Tearing life into pieces spreading in the wind.
I've accepted what tomorrow brings.
I've got no hope left, can't let this go on.
A final date with the needle...one last sting.

Tearing life into pieces spreading in the wind.
I've accepted what tomorrow brings.
I've got no hope left, can't let this go on.
A final date with the needle...one last sting.
