

Special

Abney Park

You

You're special

You've got special talents, thats guaranteed

Ohhhh You, are so very special

If you were a flower you'd have your own special seed

You

You're special

With your own special face we both are agreed

Ohh you, are so very special

With your own special ways and your own special needs

All of you are so fucking special

With your own special wants and with your special creeds that you bring

All of you are so goddamn special

There's no fucking way that we can agree on a thing
