

Dreadbringer

Aborted

Awake, bringing forth this disease
Multiply to dominate, your soul I'll penetrate
Corrupt, contaminate, and imitate, eradicate
Your path leads right through us with no way to circumvent it
I'll become your contraption
Your slave eternally, yours infernally
I used to count the days, now I don't want to go back
This lie that my life has become
Dread bringer
No resistance, the transformation has begun
What I used to dread is now my intent

The imitation took control
Dread bringer
No defiance, the imitation destroys all
The essence of my being, corrupted
Through my flesh and blood
Intertwined with my flesh and blood
In the freezing sun
Leave my spirit in the freezing sun
As life is undone

Finally whole through this perfect deception
Lie from the moment you arise
And make your strength complete
For it's time to void this world
Spew this suffering

Pain, the horror is exposed
Through flesh and bone, one by one, they all fall
The warmest place to hide
Through pain and suffering, they all fall

Intertwined with my flesh and blood
I bring the gospel of nothingness
Lie from the moment you arise
And make your strength complete
For it's time to void this world

Crawl out of the needle, become the parasite in me
Behold the reckoning
The warmest place to hide
Through pain and suffering, they all fall
