

Infinite Terror

Aborted

Enthralled by the sounds of your distress
Bound to eternal excruciation and decay
As worms drawn to the light
We desperately lust for despair
Let me settle in just before the pain

I've seen the darkness in your eyes a thousand times
Swear this time will be the last
You can't resist this suffering
No version of hell can ever compare

A solemn desire to dismember and mutilate
There's a malevolence inside these walls
For every waking heart we devour
Brings us to ecstasy

I've seen the darkness in your eyes a thousand times
Slithering, serpentine, wretched and full of wonder
Swear this time will be the last
But I know you can't resist the suffering
This torment - our gateway to hell

Eternal terror - drown in the filth of your lies
Liberate Tute Me, ex inferis - into the abyss

Into the abyss

Eternal terror - an unfathomable realm of horrors
Eternal terror - no one can hear you scream, no one can hear you bleed

No one can hear you scream

I've seen the darkness in your eyes a thousand times
Slithering, serpentine, wretched and full of wonder
Swear this time will be the last
But I know you can't resist this suffering

Into eternal terror
Into eternal terror
Into eternal terror

Enthralled by the sounds of your distress
Bound to eternal excruciation and decay
As worms drawn to the light
We desperately lust to despair
For Hell is only a word...
