

A loyal dog or maniacal?
A cult filled with nothing but sorrow
For depression is empirical
The downfall of man
We all stand tall but our failure secretes
A stench ever so foul, revulsion from within as I see

Masses of mongrels are screaming
Common sense has been depleted
As you wait for a miracle
For a God that will never show

A global unrest, psychopathic at best

A fantasy or mere lunacy - a blanket of denial
And so we bleed in this theocracy - this retched apathy
A fantasy or mere lunacy - a blanket of denial
And so we breed in this demonocracy - a mere cog in a pathetic shit show

I - a monolithic silver tongue will lead you to your death
I - a monolithic silver tongue will put sorrow to rest
Turn a blind eye bleeding, I know what you want best
To watch you crippled and broken
I - a monolithic silver tongue will lead you to your death
The final absolution from within

For none will question my actions
You're all too busy blaming each other
ManiaCult - an utopia forever more
Forever forsaken - the human waste secreted
The human farce reaches its apex

Masses of mongrels are screaming
Common sense has been depleted
As you wait for a miracle
For a God that will never fucking show

ManiaCult - a master of puppets unfolds

ManiaCult - nothing but walking feces
ManiaCult - behold the end of reason
