

Harsh and Educational

Aborym

How's it feel? When everything is not as you hoped They did everything to leave me behind I always felt anxious whenever I spoke to someone I can't reveal what happened that night

Feeling like everything I do is wrong, they said they forced me to unlearn what is right Mama taught me never to give unsolicited advice yeah it's harsh, but it makes sense

How's it feel? When they destroy everything I've built Instead of pulling me up they let me fall
They treat me as if I was invisible
They leave me there and turn off the light

Harsh and educational
Sweet revengeful act

Vengeance
Harsh and educational Suffering is where I come from I used to plant flowers along your spine
Now I take them back and I wish you pain
