

Horizon Ignited

Aborym

I forgot how to breathe
I feed myself while my sadic mind dreams up a world where I'm alone where nightmares fade away, slowly

Disappointment hones to an edge waiting for the nod to slice to the bone without respite

Can't you hear me?
Do it, save myself
I crave

Horizon ignited
holes in the clouds by twos I'm everything that you claim to be

Can't you hear me?
Do it, save myself
I crave
Can't you hear me?
Do it, save myself
I prey

As above so below
I come spinning out of the nothingness
there is no reason why I should dread the ghost hidden inside me
inside my body

Can't you hear me?
Do it, save myself
I crave
Try to catch me
I just blame myself
Hide me
