

Crying

Above & Beyond

A smile, worn like an umbrella
Keeps my powder dry
When I'm supposed to cry

But I've been meaning to tell you
That that happy guy
Was just a lie

'Cos when you walked away
You took away my happiness
Without you here my life's a mess
And when you walked away
I gave a wave, a little smile
I said I'd see you in a while
But inside
I was crying, too

I made plans for the future
For the two of us
Now there's one of us
But I'm not ready to shoot ya
It was just a plan of a lonely man

'Cos when you walked away
You took away my happiness
Without you here my life's a mess
And when you walked away
I gave a wave, a little smile
I said I'd see you in a while
But inside
I was crying, too

'Cos when you walked away
You took away my happiness
Without you here my life's a mess
And when you walked away
I gave a wave, a little smile
I said I'd see you in a while
But inside
I was crying,
I was crying too
