

Just Listen

Above & Beyond

See the open ground
Nothing there to fear
Feel the ebb and flow
Of all the people here

From day to night and
Night to day
An endless sea of choice
If you should ever lose your way
Just listen to your voice
Just listen...

Your voice...

From day to night and
Night to day
An endless sea of choice
If you should ever lose your way
Just listen to your voice
Just listen..
