Secret

Above & Beyond

I don't know why
I see the truth in
Every line

Calling me
But i would rather Believe

And when I look into your eyes
I see an awful lot of lies
You hide behind

You know I know what it means
To be freying at the seams
Out of my mind

If I tell you a secret (if I tell you a secret...)
Will you promise to keep it? (will you promise to keep it...?)
Keep it close to your heart (keep it close and never tell a soul...)
And never tell a soul

Because I have a secret (because I have a secret...)
And its hell trying to keep it (and its hell trying to keep it...)
It tears right through my heart (it tears right through my heart...)
And it swallows me whole

I don't know why
I feel my faith is
On the line

How thing appear
Seem to be ever...
Unclear

When I look into your eyes
I seen an awful lot of lies
You hide behind

You know I know what it means
To be freying at the seams
Out of my mind

If I tell you a secret (if I tell you a secret...)
Will you promise to keep it? (will you promise to keep it...?)
Keep it close to your heart (keep it close and never tell a soul...)
And never tell a soul

Because I have a secret (because I have a secret...)
And its hell trying to keep it (and its hell trying to keep it...)
It tears right through my heart (it tears right through my heart...)

And it swallows me whole
If I tell you a secret (if I tell you a secret...)
Will you promise to keep it? (will you promise to keep it...?)
Keep it close to your heart (keep it close and never tell a soul...)
And never tell a soul
Because I have a secret (because I have a secret...)
And its hell trying to keep it (and its hell trying to keep it...)
It tears right through my heart (it tears right through my heart...)
And it swallows me whole
