

Seven Flames

Above & Beyond

Seven flames and I stand guard in a house
Wire brained and high, I'm the first to get put out
You fly away and leave me with my dreams

Seven flames and you is all I want to see
Dawn breaks in two, like the heart inside of me
I should be sad, oh but nothing's as it seems

Dark angels visit me every night you're gone
But inside I'm not alone
Still burning bright as the day we met are these
Orange candle memories

I wear your ring, a halo shining bright
You hear me sing, in the silence of your night
This world seems small when you're kissing satellites

Dark angels visit me every night you're gone
But inside I'm not alone
Still burning bright as the day we met are these
Orange candle memories

I know your words all written one by one
Seared into memories burning like the sun
That shines on the garden of your heart, so young
There's only a dent in the pillow next to me
But there's a heavenly weight on my shoulder
Where your head used to be

Dark angels visit me every night you're gone
But inside I'm not alone
Still burning bright as the day we met are these
Orange candle memories

Still burning bright as the day we met are these
Orange candle memories
Orange candle memories
Orange candle memories
