

Start A Fire

Above & Beyond

It's that smile I think
More than anything
That makes my heart speed up
And starts me off again

I have to close my eyes
To let it not escape
The taste of thunderstorms
As they're about to break

There's enough of you in me
To start a fire
Coming up from the deep sea
Of dark desire

You're like a firework in my soul
And I'm starting to lose control
There's enough of you in me
To start a fire

To start a fire

I have my memory
Of the day we met
How did I keep so calm
You were an Exocet

Of course I'll never say
My feelings to your face
It's just a fantasy
From which I can't escape

There's enough of you in me
To start a fire
Coming up from the deep sea
Of dark desire

You're like a firework in my soul
And I'm starting to lose control
There's enough of you in me
To start a fire

To start a fire
There's enough of you in me
To start a fire
To start a fire
