

This is the ending
Our city burned straight to the ground
I screamed your name but you never turned around
So watch your step now
We turn our heads and look above
We're taking over this world
So take your cover just because
WE'RE FUCKING BACK AGAIN!
We're fucking back again

I'll spend my days just to find what im after
My eyes are burdened from the scene of disaster
My father always told me never play with fire
I'll take my stand for the U.S.A Empire

God I love my fucking life
Get fucking low bitch.
