Here I stand
At the gates of this castle
Packed tight like some drugs in the capsule
Let's make a trade, can you sense my abundance?
I'm pushing north like a head on a compass
Oh
Dethrone the king
I'm gonna fill in the gaps
Like I'm a piston ring inside
These walls I sing
Bet they have no idea
I'm up to anything at all
Drop the drawbridge
I will bewitch
This kingdom is mine
