

I dont need this shit

(2x)

Dont ever tell me i wasnt an impact on your life
Cause I know that I was and this is just the beginning

These are our last days and now is the time confess

Let's burn this city to the ground
We'll make up for all the lost time
Ignite our hate and make something of this life
Oh my thoughts
Are much darker than you think
I've passed the test, I've been through hell and back
To save you
I know, that you are broken
And I was just another mistake
Let out, all of your secrets
So I can finally see the real..

(2x)

You don't want another repeat of last year
Lookin like a rober when there was no cashier?
Tryna catch a break from this fucked up role play
I dont need a bitch I need a blunt, what would you say?

I am the chosen one, I am the falling sun,
I am the one you lost, it's time to pay the cost
I've come this far, and now
I've come this far
Look at me now, look what I've done
Look at me now, look what I've done
Whoa, it falls from the sky
And now I fell from the sky
AH! it falls from the sky
AYA-YA-YA! I fell from the sky
Oh I feel so different, from everyone
I feel so different, from everyone
Attaboy!
That's what they tell me, Attaboy
