Above This

I will rise above the ashes of this dictating scoundrel
The king is aging while the throne's up for gamble
Shame on all of those who question my purpose
When I am king you will be mesmerized serpents

But I am the royal executionist
Amongst the rest I'll be a puppet illusionist
You sheep I hope these snakes bite your ankles
Process of elimination stratified samples
How can I stay

I hope you see what you have been missing's
Been here right with me
How can I signify I am not your type
And I can't believe you're not here with me

This town will fall to the scene of disaster
Leaving a rose like a house of Lancaster
Now you got the characters twisted
I open fire and stand here tightfisted
I look to the left are you ready?
The time is it midnight already?
Sharpen your knives are you ready?
Prepare slow and steady

Run up in the the foyer looking hella crazy
Got a bullet proof vest for my fucking safety
I'm not here to talk I'm only here to claim her
Hope you like the track cause it's a fucking banger
I pick it up then I drop it down
Got my motherfucking team sleeping safe and sound
You can talk the talk but can you walk the walk
You better check the clock because it's time to work and rock

Rise above the ashes of this dictating scoundrel
The king is aging while the throne's up for gamble
Shame on all of those who question my purpose
When I am king you will be mesmerized serpents

I hope you see what you have been missing's
Been here right with me
How can I signify I am not your type
And I can't believe you're not here with me

Into the midst of what's happened before us
I will subject to the terms being discussed
Never did I think that this would define me
Spacing these words as I punch the cammand key
I dream of rivers that flow of subsistence
Teaching the youth about building persistance
Love what you do and just know that you're worth it
Now that I'm king I will strive to be perfect
