

For You

Abra Cadabra

Yeah
No problem, no problem
Aye
Mlonthebeat

I beg you listen, I see you coming from a distance, distance
Skin look fine I cannot miss that, I beg
When my shawty talking keep it quite, I can't hear you
Me and her against the world, I do it I'm not scared to
Before this love was a myth to me

I don't know feelings if it isn't for you
For you, for you, for you
I don't know feelings if it isn't for you
For you, for you, for you
I don't know feelings if it isn't for you
For you
I don't know feelings if it isn't for you
For you, for you, for you

Will you be my, aye
Will you be my reason to come home, hmmm
Or will you make me regret all the times I did call for you (Will you)
Will you only give me half even though I want all of you (Ahhh huhhh)
No problem, no problem
I've been having some thoughts in my head lately
I've been thinking in my head
And I've been thinking I don't wanna grow old and die on my own (Ohhh, ohhh, ohhh)
I live the life of a gangster (Ahhh huhhh)
I need a real one (Aye)
One that knows that I need her and know she needs me (Ohhh, ohhh, ohhh)
I hope it's you

I beg you listen, I see you coming from a distance, distance
Skin look fine I cannot miss that, I beg
When my shawty talking keep it quite, I can't hear you
Me and her against the world, I do it I'm not scared to
Before this love was a myth to me

I don't know feelings if it isn't for you
For you, for you, for you
I don't know feelings if it isn't for you
For you, for you, for you
I don't know feelings if it isn't for you
For you
I don't know feelings if it isn't for you
For you, for you, for you

For you, for you, for you
Mlonthebeat
For you, for you, for you
For you, for you, for you
