

Lemon Drop

Absofacto

Marigold, you know my habits
You and I, we speak that language
I grew out the seeds you planted
Pockets full bloom in that bright yellow jacket

It's always too much when I need you
But it's never enough when I see you
It's harder each time that I leave you
So you're thinking about coming over?
It's been three days and I'm sober
It's not what you hold, it's who holds you

Blonde Camaro, gold leaf
Yellow lemon drop
You're my one and only, just the way you are
Wanna see the world from the front seat of your car
Tell me you ain't far
Tell me you ain't far

Blonde Camaro, gold leaf
Yellow lemon drop
You're my one and only, just the way you are
Wanna see the world from the front seat of your car
Tell me you ain't far
Tell me you ain't far

Your hands on the wheel
Steady the shaking
Forgot how it feels
Yeah, I know the drill, but I'm losing my patience
There's time if you make it
The further you go, the further I take it

It's always too much when I need you
But it's never enough when I see you
It's harder each time that I leave you
So you're thinking about coming over?
It's been three days and I'm sober
It's not what you hold, it's who holds you

Blonde Camaro, gold leaf
Yellow lemon drop
You're my one and only, just the way you are
Wanna see the world from the front seat of your car
Tell me you ain't far
Tell me you ain't far

Blonde Camaro, gold leaf
Yellow lemon drop
You're my one and only, just the way you are
Wanna see the world from the front seat of your car
Tell me you ain't far
Tell me you ain't far
